

ULUSLARARASI TEMSİL IFALPA BELGESİ

Belge: IFALPA Daily News – 16 July 2013

Tarih: 16.07.2013

Kaynak: IFALPA haberleri · talpa.org

Dear Colleagues,

The IFALPA Daily News is now available online.

Here are today's top headlines. To read more, click on the title:

London Mayor outlines Heathrow alternatives

London's mayor, Boris Johnson, sketched out three options to solve London's airport capacity shortage, slamming the idea that expanding Heathrow is a viable alternative, in the latest episode in a long-running political tussle.

American Eagle pilots say no to US Airways pay proposal

The union that represents pilots at American Eagle says it won't consider a proposal from US Airways Group that would have paid new pilot hires less than current pilots at the Fort Worth-based regional carrier.

Too close for comfort: FAA says near accidents have spiked

Aircraft collisions that are "barely avoided" have increased more than 600 percent in the past four years, according to data from the Federal Aviation Administration, potentially putting thousands of passengers' lives at risk.

New Indian aviation regulator passes first hurdle

India's Directorate-General of Civil Aviation's (DGCA) days as a regulator appear to be numbered now that the country's government has approved "in principle" a new Civil Aviation Authority to replace it.

Emirates Airline tie-up revives fortunes of Australia's Qantas

Three months into the Qantas-Emirates pact, the Irish-born chief executive of Australia's flag carrier is steering the airline nicknamed The Flying Kangaroo back to health.

Chinese airline to hire 'flight aunties

'To meet strong growth in demand, China's Spring Airlines is on a drive to hire new flight attendants, a profession that's highly sought-after in the nation for the glamour and travel opportunities.